

APE

Here's an easy way for students to write a text-supported answer in 3 sentences.

- A Answer the question using part of the question in your answer.
- P Prove it. Start this sentence with, "The text says that".
- E Explain your point. Start this sentence with the word 'If'.

Read the article Toyota Canada to Hire 800 People at Woodstock Plant. Explain why Toyota is able to expand operations.

Toyota is able to expand operations because there has been an extra demand for the RAV4 sport utility vehicle. The article says that Ontario has a skilled workforce and a competitive business environment. If consumers are asking for a product and Toyota has the ability to increase production, then it's time to build more cars and witness a turn-around in the automotive industry.
