

Let's break down the APE into

A
P
E

This week, let's look at A:
Answer the question.

Model for students how to use part of the question to begin their answers.

Here's an example of beginning the answer with part of the question:

Q Explain why international governments need to help the environment.

A International governments need to help the environment because the global community has to work together.